

“You are my witnesses,” declares the Lord.*Main Bible Verse:

(Isaiah 43:10) “You are my witnesses,” declares the Lord, “and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he. Before me no god was formed, nor will there be one after me.

Summary:

1. (Acts 11:26) The People of the Lord: In Old Testament, it means the Israelites. In New Testament, it means the children of God, nowadays called Christians.
2. We all must become a witness of God. How do we become the people of the Lord? How do we preach His name? The answer is to begin with our daily lives, for our friends and families are watching us daily and we must live a life of good testimony.
3. How to show that we are a good witness of God?
  - a. With our words: preach the gospel
  - b. Live our lives: Live a wonderful life of Christ, with joy, power, direction, wisdom, revelation, and be the faithful and wise servant of the Lord.
4. (Matthew 23:1-3) Jesus taught all the servants of God that we should not become a Christian with all lips.
5. Christian are those who are baptized and received salvation. Not only that, but we must also live a life of Christ and be a pleasing aroma. In other words, our life must manifest the glory of Christ.
6. (Matthew 12:33-34/Proverbs 4:23) Paul taught us, we must listen to God’s word and to act upon it, for Jesus looks at our hearts.
7. We must pay attention to God’s word and to the commission that God has bestowed upon us. Therefore, we must pray and ask for the strength and wisdom to become a faithful, wise, and alert Christian.
8. First stay faithful in the commission God has bestowed upon you. We must be willing to become a vessel of God and practice to share the gospel. We must follow God’s word carefully and to make it part of our lives. When we are able to live God’s word out, our live will become a wonderful testimony of God.
9. (Romans 7:18) When we are able to admit that our old-self still needs a lot of improvement to live a life of Christ; when we are willing to admit that we are not able to do it on our own, we will be able to understand the importance of being reborn, which means to receive the good and perfect gift from above and let the life of Christ enter your life.
10. Change the way we eat: (Acts 15:29) You are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality. You will do well to avoid these things.
11. Change the way we dress: cloth our self in God’s holiness.
  - (1 John 2:16) For everything in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—comes not from the Father but from the world.
12. Change our actions: Begin with departing from our old habits and way of life. Proclaim to live a life according to God’s will. Seek the will of God and honor the Lord. You then will see that God has gifted you with the good and perfect gifts and your spirit will rejoice in God our savior.

Conclusion:

- (Philippians 2:16) as you hold firmly to the word of life. And then I will be able to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain.
- (1 Thessalonians 1:10) and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.
  - Therefore, it is important to come to the morning prayer meetings and seek the will of God, for it is impossible for us to simply pray at home and understand the will of the Lord. We must come to church and receive the fresh anointing through the work of the Holy Spirit. We then will be able to better understand the word and the will of God.
- (1 Corinthians 4:7) For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?
  - When you truly understand this scripture, you will realize the importance of humble before the Lord and give all glory to God. Then you will become the elect, the servant whom God has chosen.
