Summary:

Luke 17:17-18 | John 10:10

- Through faith and action, we will surely be healed.
 - Jesus is our healer, and as long as we have no doubt, we will surely be healed.
- We must be especially careful of our deeds.
 - If we have action with faith, we will be healed and blessed.
 - We must learn to rid ourselves of doubt.
- Once we have received healing, we must return to church and give thanks to God.
 - The more we give thanks, the more healing we will receive.
 - Having a thanksgiving heart is crucial.
- We must deny the attack of satan.
 - We may have thoughts such as, "am I truly healed?" but when we have thoughts like so, we must cast out the demons.
 - We must lift our hands proclaim that we are healed.
 - "The thief comes only to steal, kill, and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full" (John 10:10).
 - We mustn't allow the thief to steal, kill, and destroy our faith.
 - We must cast out the thief in the name of God.
- We must not forget to return to church with a heart of thanksgiving and thank God.
- When we have a grateful heart, the devil will flee from us.
- If we do not come to church, we are allowing the thief to steal, kill, and destroy.
- We must not forget that it is God that heals us.
 - Once we have received healing, we must give glory to God.
- To top off all the exercise, eating, sleeping, and bathing that we do, we must end our day by reading the Bible, praising, and giving thanks to God.

Genesis 3:19

- We must have faith with power and action.

- We must walk with faith and walk at least 30 minutes a day.
- When we do this, we will notice how God has healed us.
- Healing comes from faith combined with action.
- We must make sure to take care of our body by drinking lots of water and exercising.
- We must also ensure that we sweat for Genesis 3:19 tells us that, “by the sweat of your brow you will eat your food.”
- We must find the time to sleep, exercise, and bathe ourselves.
- Our body is the temple of God and is more important than money.
 - We must exercise and take baths to care for our body.
- We must not sit at home all day.
 - We must also be careful not to overeat.
