Summary:

2 Kings 5:8-13

- Restoration of the church is based upon the prophets.
 - Prophets pray daily before they leave the house and after they return, and they tread simply.
 - Prophets are humble and courteous.
 - We must learn to also pray every day to give thanks.
- Blessed are the ones who are humble for God will surely give them peace, listen to their prayers, and solve their problems.
- Faith must be accompanied with action.
 - We must fill our hearts with the word of God and rid ourselves of doubt.
 - When we have faith, we will surely be healed.
 - When we are healed, we must remember to return to church to give thanks.
 - God's healing has no restrictions.
 - We must eat God's medicine which is faith.
 - We must open our mouth to take the spiritual medication of faith.
 - We must give glory to God and become a testimony for God.
- We must not allow our expectations to get in the way of God's work.
 - We must put aside our own feelings and expectations and follow God's instructions.
- Baptism is based on our faith.
 - Our faith must have action.
- When we listen to the word of God and follow His instructions, we will surely be healed.
- When God does great things, it is beyond what we can do or even understand.
 - We only need to have faith with action, and God will have His great work be done through us.
