Summary:

Acts 16:25-31 | James 4:6-8 | Job 26:1-4, 13-14

- We must not lose our hope.
 - Even if we are going through troubles, God will surely prepare for us a new and living way.
 - Jesus is our way, truth, and life, and we only need to have faith in His plan for us.
 - As long as we come before God, He will give us rest.
- Even while Paul and Silas were in jail, they continued to pray and worship.
 - Before we do anything, we must first inquire of the Lord.
 - We must not be double minded.
 - We must not doubt God’s grace.
 - We also must not rebuke others.
 - We just need to humble ourselves before God.
 - In God all things are possible.
- When we are experiencing troubles, we can rely on God.
 - We may not have the power to change our circumstance, but with God, we can overcome any problem.
 - “How you have helped the powerless! How you have saved the arm that is feeble!” (Job 26:2).
 - When we struggle, we must ask for God’s wisdom to overcome.
- All things are created by God, and through His word, we will be healed and blessed.
- Believing in Jesus is not merely a religion.
 - We must truly believe in Jesus, and He will surely empower us to overcome.
 - God’s help is perfect, and He withholds nothing from us.
- God gives grace to those who are humble.
 - When God is with us, our enemies will flee.
- When we worry, we must learn from Paul and Silas and open our mouths to pray and worship.
 - We must cast out our worry through worshiping in spirit and in truth.
 - We must be filled with the Holy Spirit, and we will receive peace.
- We must not hide ourselves from God, and He will show Himself to us.

- He will fill us with His power.

Psalm 119:164-165 | Psalm 22:1-5 | Acts 4:12 | Psalm 103:1-7

- Nothing will make us stumble when we love God's law.
- Someone who praises seven times a day and truly yearns for God will have a new and living way opened for them.
- When we open our mouths to praise our enemies will flee.
- Our flesh is weak and helpless, and if we rely on our flesh, we can do very little.
 - However, if we worship God in spirit and in truth, we will be empowered and do great works.
 - If we draw near God, He will draw near us.
 - By flesh we are weak, but by God we can do anything.
- We must return to God in order to have His presence with us.
 - We will be clothed with holiness.
 - We must confess our sins and repent and return.
 - We must rid ourselves of our own thoughts and dedicate our entire heart and mind to worshipping God.
 - We must cast away the helplessness of our flesh for the power of God.
- If we want our praise to be chosen by God, we must thoroughly repent and return.
 - We must confess that He is our only savior.
 - "Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12).
- If we want our praise to reach the throne of Jesus and be chosen to be His people, we must stop judging.
 - We must only speak words of blessings and praise.
- Faith comes from the heart.
 - We must speak from our heart to confess through our mouth that, by Jesus' wounds we have already been healed.
- Even in hopelessness, we must have unwavering faith.
 - Through our faith and repentance, we will be healed.
- We must be a good testimony for God and bring others to God as well.
- By God, all things are possible, and all we need to do is believe in Him.
- We must only speak words of blessings.
 - We must proclaim blessings for our voice has power.
 - We must not utter curses or discouraging words.
- "Praise the Lord, my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name" (Psalm 103:1).
 - When we praise God and repent and return, we will not be bound by anything.
 - We will receive healing, and our lives will be redeemed from the pit of death.
- God will send angels to protect, comfort, and encourage us.
 - Our body is the temple of God, and we mustn't harm ourselves.
 - We were bought at a great price for Jesus died for us, so we must take care of ourselves.
