

Do Not Let Your Hearts Be Troubled

Main Bible Verse:

(John 14:25-29) 26 But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

“You heard me say, ‘I am going away and I am coming back to you.’ If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.

Summary:

John 14:1-18 | 1 Peter 5:6-9 | Psalm 103 | Isaiah 40:31

- We do not need to be afraid or troubled for God will always prepare for us.
- God knows that we will run into all sorts of trouble.
 - This is why He told us that we do not need to worry for He is the way, truth, and life.
 - “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me... Jesus answered, ‘I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me’” (John 14:1, 6).
- We must not allow our worry and troubles to swallow us for it is what satan wants, but we must cast all our worries to Jesus.
- If it seems that our prayers are not being answered, we must rid ourselves of worry and trouble.
- David found favor in God because he knew to cast his worries to the Lord.
 - David knew that instead of worrying, he can praise God.
- We must praise until the worry and trouble leaves us and the power and anointing come from heaven.
 - We must not forget all God has done for us.
- Because of sin, we cannot hear God, but we only need to repent and return and ask for the glory of God to come back to us.
 - We must allow God to open our eyes and ears and let the glory come back upon us.
- We must not let our hearts be troubled and become food for the devil, but we must praise and sing until we have joy in our lives.
 - When we do this, we will soar on wings like eagles, and we will be healthy in all we do.
- “If you love me, keep my commands. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever—” (John 14:15).
 - This advocate, the Holy Spirit, will know all our troubles and will help us and guide us.
 - If we have any troubles or worries, the Holy Spirit will speak to us.

Ephesians 4:29-32 | Luke 23:34 | Romans 8 | Isaiah 49:14-16

- Sometimes God will test us.
 - When we encounter troubles will we complain, criticize, or judge?
 - We must be especially careful not to do these things but ask the Holy Spirit for help.
 - Our tongue has great power, and God likes to use our mouths to bless others and bind satan's actions.
 - However, we may be faint of heart and say words of malice.
 - When this happens, the Holy Spirit will grieve that we lose authority of mouth.
 - We must not have any bitterness or rage in our hearts.
 - We must not keep grudges, jealousy, and anger in our hearts.
 - "Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing'" (Luke 23:34).
 - We must not speak words of malice towards others, but forgive others just as Jesus wants us to do.
 - Even if others wrong us, we must not accuse them but help them be saved.
 - We must not criticize or judge others but only show them the love of God.
 - God's love is unconditional, and even when we were sinners, He had already given us His grace.
 - He has already given us Jesus to cleanse us of our sins.
 - We must pray for others and help others to experience the greatness of God instead of holding a grudge against them.
 - There are many things that we do not know, but God knows all things.
 - Jesus has prepared a way of joy and peace for us.
 - He will give us the power to do what we need to do.
 - God will never forget us for our names are on His palms.
 - We needn't worry for He will protect us and help us.
 - Regardless of what is happening in our lives, He will provide.
1. Do not let our heart be troubled.
 2. Let the Holy Spirit fill our heart with joy.
 3. Love Jesus.
 - v(John 14:21) Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."
 4. Do not grieve the Holy Spirit.

Sometimes, in life, we face trials and storms.
One thing I know for sure, You're always with me.
When I can barely stand, burdened with doubt, I will choose to believe You're always here with me.

Chorus

Mountains move for me. Oceans part for me.
I'll declare it aloud, Jesus, You're always with me.
Nailed on the cross for me. Gave Your life for me.
I will shout it aloud, Jesus, You're always with me.

Bridge

By Your words I understand,
Your love never, ever fails. Jesus,
You will guard my heart.
I'll hold on to You all my life.

Verse

Come and taste the grace of God

There is nothing that can be sweeter

My life's greatest blessing

Is that Jesus Christ lives and dwells in my heart

Nothing in this world compares

To the strong love of Jesus Christ

My life's greatest blessing

Is that Jesus Christ lives and dwells in my heart

Chorus

Since Jesus lives in my heart

I can soar above the storms

Even if all else fails

I'll deeply believe

His grace is sufficient for me

Since Jesus lives in my heart

My tomorrow is full of hope

All the troubles will pass

I stand in the Lord

Fixed upon God's glory and crown

Verse

So precious, my Jesus

How sweet and pure is Your love

You have drawn me deeper in love with You

I'm filled with joy loving You
