Summary:*Exodus 1:5, 8-10 | Exodus 2 | Numbers 26:59 | John 1:12-13

- Joseph, although sold as a slave in Egypt, received the wisdom from God and became the second in command.
- God truly loves the Israelites, and in all things He greatly blesses them.
  - In all that we do, we need not worry or be burdened.
  - The Holy Spirit will help us to change our life.
- Moses was born in a time when Egyptians had already forgotten Joseph and were afraid of the population of the Israelites.
  - The Egyptians were tasked to kill the male babies during childbirth.
- We must have faith in and reverence for the Lord.
  - If we have two people to pray in one heart and one mind, God will be very glad.
  - God will then bestow upon us many blessings and peace.
- Abraham was willing to sacrifice, believing in the resurrection power of God.
  - God will do things for us according to how great our faith is.
- Jesus has already died and gone to hell for us so that we may be redeemed.
  - We do not need to be worried or afraid but just believe in God.
  - When we have faith, all aspects of our life will have Jesus' resurrection power.
- Moses' mother, Jochebed, knew how God is, so she prayed and hid Moses for three months.
  - When we pray, we face will enemies, and these enemies block our communication with God.

1. Our own flesh
    - a. The Bible is our spiritual mirror, and we must pray until the power comes from God to change ourselves.
    - b. We must carry our cross, the commission that God has given us, and we will be greatly blessed.
  2. Our own feelings
    - a. We must be careful to be diligent in the correct direction.
    - b. We must pray until we receive our direction from God and run accordingly.
    - c. The methods of the world are temporary, so we must pray until we receive our solution from God.
  3. The worldly opinions
    - a. We must not allow ourselves to be swayed by what people say.
- Jochebed prayed for 3 months, and God gave her a plan.
    - God told her to make a boat out of a basket with tar and pitch and put Moses inside.
    - Moses' sister, Miriam, watched as the basket floated down the river and got caught in the reeds.
    - Pharaoh's daughter went out to bathe and saw the basket full of glory.
    - Although the Hebrew babies were to be killed, pharaoh's daughter wanted to keep Moses.
    - Miriam then came out to talk to the pharaoh's daughter.
    - Jochebed was able to teach Moses according to the truth as she raised him.
    - This is how God works; He not only solves one of our problems but gives us grace upon grace.
    - When we submit to each and every word from God, we will be able to overcome and find success in every step of our life.
  - If we feel like we do not receive a message from God while praying, we must calm our heart and be willing to receive.
    - We must pray in tongues not just for a certain amount of time but until we break through and overcome.
    - The Holy Spirit lives within us, and when we pray, the living water will come from within.
      - When we have this living water, we will receive complete healing and abundant blessings.
  - We must come to church whenever possible in order to pray.

Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God
