

Enter His Gates With Thanksgiving and His Courts With PraiseMain Bible Verse:

(Psalms 100) Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth. 2 Worship the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. 3 Know that the Lord is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. 4 Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. 5 For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

Summary:Psalms 100:1-5 | Psalms 63:2

- In Psalms 100, God prescribes a wonderful way for us.
 - It tells us to enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise.
- If we want God to prepare for us wonderful miracles and blessings, we must enter according to this verse.
- Why might we pray for a long time, but our prayers are not answered yet?
 - We have yet to enter God's gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise.
 - We will not be able to enter and receive God's blessings if we are missing either of these.
- When we come before the Lord, we must lift up our hands and sing joyful songs to the Lord.
 - God loves us and wants us to be well.
 - That is why He cares about how we worship.
 - We must worship truly from our hearts.
- Praising wholeheartedly with our mouths is not a sign of weakness.

- It is the avenue for us to receive strength and power from God.
- We must not have doubts when we worship.
 - We must have the faith the God will help us and come before God with a thankful heart.
- When we worship with joy, we will be able to enter His miracles.
- God loves it when we have prayer of thanksgiving because we know that true thanksgiving comes from God.
 - With thanksgiving in our hearts, we will naturally praise.
- God is enthroned in our praise not in our complain.
 - Only when we praise, will God reign over us.
- In Psalms 63, King David tells us that he has beheld the Lord in the sanctuary.
 - (Psalms 63:2) I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory.
 - He entered the sanctuary to see the Lord and His power and glory and receive God's glory and power.
- We must enter the sanctuary with the same attitude as David.
 - We must come to quiet ourselves.
 - We must quiet down and honor the church of God.
 - Church is a place for praise and not idle talking.
 - We must come to seek the Lord.
 - We must come to worship and praise the Lord.
- Only when we quiet ourselves will we be able to see God.
- When we wholeheartedly fix our eyes on the Lord, we will see Him.
- Church is a holy place where God listens to our prayers.
- We can not use our temper, envy, or complain to enter God's gate and His court.
 - When we use any other way to enter the gates, we are inviting the evil Spirits.
 - Therefore, we must be careful to enter only with thanksgiving and praise.
- We must daily sing and praise God.
 - When we do this, we will have peace in our hearts.

Acts 16:25-31 | John 14:1

- Paul and Silas were praising God in the prison.
 - While they were praising, God's presence came down.
 - (Acts 16:25) About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them.
- Paul and Silas understood how to enter God's gate and court.
 - When they encountered problems, they prayed, sang, and worshipped God.
- When we sing from our heart, the power of God will come down.
 - (Acts 16:26-31) Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everyone's chains came loose. 27 The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! We are all here!" 29 The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. 30 He then brought them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" 31 They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household."

- When Paul and Silas praised, miracles happened.
 - There was a great earthquake and the doors to the prison flew open.
 - The jailer thought that the prisoners had escaped, however, none of them left.
- From the story of Paul and Silas, we can see that when we praise, miracles, anointing, and power will come to us.
- We must have faith and not fear.
 - (John 14:1) "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me.
 - If our hearts are not troubled, God will prepare for your future.
- If our hearts are fearful or have doubt, we must call out to God and praise continually.
- If we lift up our hands to praise, there is no need to fear because God will definitely help us.
- On top of worshipping, we must also forgive.
 - Matthew (6:12) And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.
- When we forgive others, God will also forgive us.
 - Not only will our prayers be answered, but our household will be blessed.
- We are all made by God, and only through Him will we be able to accomplish things.
- When we change our mindset and have a heart of praise, thanksgiving, and forgiveness, the blessings of God will come down.
- We must have faith and allow God to create for us.
- After we pray, we must have full faith that God has healed and not have doubt.

Verse 1

Even when the trials come

You'll surely make a way

Do not doubt do not fear

My soul will praise You, Lord

Pre-Chorus

I will trust in You, I'll put my hope in You

For You are the Lord, You are in control

Chorus

Lord, I know You will make a way

Here in the wilderness

Surrounded by foes, yet never lose my hope

Lord, I will choose to praise Your name

Declare Your faithfulness

My Lord, You are in control

You will work all things for good

You give and You take away

Let Your will be fulfilled

My soul will praise You, Lord

Pre-Chorus

I will trust in You, I'll put my hope in You

For You are the Lord, You are in control

Chorus

Lord, I know You will make a way

Here in the wilderness

Surrounded by foes, yet never lose my hope

Lord, I will choose to praise Your name

Declare Your faithfulness

My Lord, You are in control

May Father's love and His grace be with you

May Holy Spirit cover you

Grace upon grace, granted to you

May His peace and joy flow over you

Grace upon grace, granted to you

May His peace and joy flow over you

Chorus

Grace upon grace, granted to you

May His peace and joy flow over you

Grace upon grace, granted to you

May His peace and joy flow over you
