Summary:

Psalm 145:8-9 | Luke 15:11-24 | John 3:16

- (Psalm 145:8-9) 8 The Lord is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in love. 9 The Lord is good to all; he has compassion on all he has made.
- Our God is a God of mercy, love, and grace.
 - He is good to all, from salvation to healing.
 - All that we have and all that we have done are a grace and mercy from God.
- Especially in these end times, we need God's mercy daily.
- We must learn to build our relationship with God.
- We must remember to repent and return whenever we do something wrong.
- Mercy and grace are similar but not the same.
 - Mercy is holding back the punishment and judgement that we do deserve.
 - Grace is giving us what we do not deserve.
- God is waiting for us with open arms to change and return to Him.
 - God's biggest act of mercy and grace is giving us Jesus to die for our sins.
- (John 3:16) For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.
- We can see in the four gospels that Jesus spent much of His time preaching the word of God.

- He also performed miracles and healed many people.
- Not only does Jesus care about our salvation but also our physical wellbeing.

Matthew 20:29-34 | Lamentations 3:25-26 | Matthew 6:12 | Matthew 5:7 | Luke 6:36-38

- These 2 blind men believed that Jesus was the son of God.
- They had full faith that Jesus could heal them and give them back their sight.
 - We must learn from these 2 men and come before Jesus to cry out to Him and ask Him for help and healing.
- Because of Jesus' mercy and compassion, we can receive many miracles in our life.
 - Whether we have issues with our marriage, business, or health, we just need to call out to God, and He will help us.
 - We must find a place to pray and call out to God daily.
 - When God hears our prayers and cries, we will receive miracles.
- Every morning, we must call out to God, repent and return, and He will have mercy on us and help us.
- (Lamentations 3:25-26) 25 The Lord is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him; 26 it is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the Lord.
 - No matter what we have done, as long as we repent and return, Jesus will help us and have mercy on us.
 - There is nothing that we can do that will nullify Jesus' mercy on us.
 - God's grace and mercy are greater than the mistakes that we make.
- We must have a heart of praise and thanksgiving.
- We must learn to also have mercy on others.
 - (Matthew 6:12) And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.
 - (Matthew 5:7) Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
 - (Luke 6:36-38) 36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. 37 "Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. 38 Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."
 - The more we give to others and forgive others, the more God will give to us and forgive us.
- Regardless of what others do to us, we must have a heart of compassion and continue to pray for others and bless them.
- We must see each other in the eye of mercy.
 - We must not go around hating others and holding grudges.
 - We must instead see each other with eyes of mercy.
 - We must love and forgive those around us.
- We must walk in truth, share the word, and pray for those around us.
 - We must not allow our frustration and anger to get the best of us.
 - Instead, we must continue to pray for others and ask God for strength to overcome.
- Although we can be different from other people, we must see with an eye of mercy.
 - We must forgive and bless others instead of criticizing and judging.
- We must go out to share out the gospel.

Micah 6:8 | Psalm 23:6

- (Micah 6:8) He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.
 - The three things God requires of us are to act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly.
 - Not only must we act with mercy but to love it.
 - We must humble ourselves before God and call out to Him.
- We must have mercy and cry out to God until the Holy Spirit comes on us.
- Nobody is perfect, but if we can all act with mercy, treating each other with love, the glory of God will shine upon all of us.
 - The glory of God will make our imperfection into something beautiful.
- (Psalm 23:6) Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Unless a seed

Consents to falling into the field

Though all the time can pass waiting

The seed remains alone

If it consents

To be used up its life to yield

For the new life it's creating

Soon a harvest is grown

It's my desire Lord I desire
To be a seed that falls into the field
Giving up my life to live anew
It's my desire Lord I desire
All of my rights and my pride I yield
To obey Your word and follow You
