Summary:

Psalms:145:8-9 | James 2:12-13 | Luke 10:25-37 | Matthew 5:7

- (Psalms 145:8-9) 8 The Lord is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and rich in love. 9 The Lord is good to all; he has compassion on all he has made.
- Everything we have today are from the mercy of God.
  - God's mercy does not refer only to our salvation.
- What is the mercy of God?
  - It is God's love for us.
  - It is giving us another chance.
- Mercy is similar to the grace of God but is slightly different.
  - Grace is giving us what we do not deserve.
  - Mercy is taking away the punishments that we do deserve.
- Though the prodigal son ran away and spent all of his inheritance, his father had mercy on him and welcomed him back with open arms.
- When we are in trouble and have nowhere to go, we must not give up and call out to God and ask for His help and mercy.
  - When we call out when we are need and ask for the Lord's mercy and forgiveness, He will help us.
- Our God is a merciful God as long as we come before Him and repent and return, He will show us mercy and compassion.

- (James 2:12-13) 12 Speak and act as those who are going to be judged by the law that gives freedom, 13 because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. Mercy triumphs over judgment.
- We must always speak and act in love.
  - We must give others another chance.
  - If we act and walk in love towards other, God's mercy will be on us.
    - He will not judge us but show mercy to us.
  - We must not judge or criticize others.
- We must have a heart of compassion.
  - When pray for others with a heart of compassion and full faith, they will be healed.
- It is good to have money, and knowledge, however, it is best to have compassion.
- Mercy is not sympathy.
  - Sympathy is just feeling sorry for someone but not taking action.
  - Mercy requires action and sacrifice.
- Although the priest and the Levite may have had sympathy on the man, the Samaritan showed mercy and helped the man.
  - Jesus told us to do likewise.
- We must always pray for others around us and help them when we are able to.
  - The least we could do for others is to help them with our time.
- Although we may not see eye to eye with others, we must always forgive others and never hold grudges or judge.
- However much we want to be able to overcome and have God's victory and mercy, we must show that mercy to others.
  - (Matthew 5:7) Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
- As long as we have a merciful heart and a heart that is willing to repent, God will have mercy on us.
- When we have wronged others, we must always be the first to apologize.

The love of God flows like a river
Flows down from His throne above
He's the light that shines through in my life
Lord of all, we lift Your name up on high
Spirit God, come upon my heart
You heal and mend, my brokenness
You're the Lord who reigns above my heart
Precious Lord come and rain down on us

Chorus

His river flows by and through me
Flows to abundant life
We praise you, the glorious King
So my heart sings to You only
Until my heart is set free
Dear Holy Spirit, come move in this place

May Father's love and His grace be with you

May Holy Spirit cover you

Grace upon grace, granted to you

May His peace and joy flow over you

Grace upon grace, granted to you

May His peace and joy flow over you

Chorus

Grace upon grace, granted to you

May His peace and joy flow over you

Grace upon grace, granted to you

May His peace and joy flow over you
