Summary:

Romans 8:28-30 | John 14:21 | Luke 4:18-19 | Acts 2:38 | Romans 6 | Hebrews 9:22

- God loves every one of us, and He loves to bless us.
- Peter is one of the disciples called by Jesus.
 - When Peter was awaiting the Holy Spirit in Jerusalem, he reminded us that we must repent and be baptized.
 - Only through Jesus' blood are we able to be redeemed from our sins.
 - In the past, the sacrifice of animals needed to be made every year as it was incomplete.
 - However, Jesus came to die and shed His blood for us as a pure sacrifice once and for all.
- The blood of Christ has delivered us so that we may become children of light.
 - Because of this, our names can be recorded in the book of life.
- Jesus told us that we must eat His flesh and drink His blood, and this is why the holy communion is so important.
 - We must come before God to repent and return and partake in the communion.
- In all that we do, we must be led by the Holy Spirit.
 - Our foundation must be set in Christ, and we must rid ourselves of all of our thoughts and feelings.
 - All we do must be according to the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
- Everything that we do must be done according to the Spirit in such a way that glory is given to God.

- (Luke 4:18-19) 18 “The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

2 Kings 4:1-7 | Matthew 11:28-30 | Proverbs 3:6 | John 6:1-15 | 1 Samuel 15:22 | Psalm 103:19

- There are many troubles in the world, but we can find rest in Jesus.
 - (Matthew 11:28-30) 28 “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”
- We must not rely on our own thoughts and feelings or the professionalism of the world.
 - Instead, we must seek God.
 - Whenever we encounter troubles, we must earnestly come before the Lord and call out to Him.
 - (Proverbs 3:6) in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.
- In both the case of the widow with her small jar of olive oil as well as the child’s five loaves and two fish, we must learn to dedicate all that we have, no matter how little, to God.
 - Furthermore, no matter what the instruction we receive from God is, we must follow.
 - The widow and her sons were willing to obey the instructions given to them by Elisha, and they were blessed.
 - (1 Samuel 15:22) But Samuel replied: "Does the Lord delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the Lord? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams.
- The widow, after following the instructions given to her, returned to Elisha for further instructions.
 - She did not resort to following her own thoughts and feelings but returned to ask what she was to do.
 - This widow not only paid off her debt but had enough oil to live off of.
- When we encounter troubles, we must not begin to complain but continue to worship and praise God.
 - No matter what happens, we must continue to worship until we receive the anointing of the Holy Spirit.
 - When we rely on the Lord, not only will we be blessed, but those around us will be blessed as well.
- We must learn to seek the anointing of the Holy Spirit, and we will receive the heavenly wisdom from God.
