Summary:

Isaiah 30:15 | Psalms 5:1-2 | Psalms 33:16-18 | Acts 4:12

- (Isaiah 30:15) 15 This is what the Sovereign Lord, the Holy One of Israel, says: "In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust is your strength, but you would have none of it.
- This verse tells us about the salvation of our repentance.
 - This verse talks about the redemption of God in our lives.
 - God wants to help us. Therefore, through prophet Isaiah, he tells us that through repentance and rest is our salvation.
- To repent is to return.
 - What do we return to?
 - We return to the Bible.
 - We return to the Holy Spirit.
 - We return to God's sovereignty.
- Through prophet Isaiah, God reminded the Israelites that they had to repent and return before God.
 - However, the Israelites did not return.
- We must truly humble ourselves and return before God.
- (Psalms 5:1-2) 1 Listen to my words, Lord, consider my lament. 2 Hear my cry for help, my King and my God, for to you I pray.
 - We must cry out from the bottom of our heart when we call out to God.

- Even though King David had a large army with him always, he never relied on his own strength.
- (Psalms 33:16-18) 16 No king is saved by the size of his army; no warrior escapes by his great strength. 17 A horse is a vain hope for deliverance; despite all its great strength it cannot save. 18 But the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love, 19 to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.
 - David knew full well that victory is not determined by the strength of his army or his own strength but through God's help.
- Throughout Chronicles, we can see that David fought in many battles that seemed quite impossible.
 - David trusted in God and had full faith that God would lead him to victory.
- We must truly repent and rest before the Lord.
- (Acts 4:12) 12 Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved."
 - This was spoken by Peter, a fisherman who followed Jesus.
 - Though he was a fisherman, he spoke such profound wisdom as enabled by the Holy Spirit.
- When we pray, we must always end in "In Jesus Name we pray."
 - Only through Jesus name can we be saved.
- As children of God, we are so blessed because we can come before God and worship Him at church and receive His strength and anointing.
- When we come to church, our hope must be in Jesus.
 - We must come before God with a joyful heart.

Psalms 5:7-8 | Psalms 63:3-5

- (Psalms 5:7-8) 7 But I, by your great love, can come into your house; in reverence I bow down toward your holy temple. 8 Lead me, Lord, in your righteousness because of my enemies— make your way straight before me.
- David asked God to lead him in His righteousness.
 - This is how David was delivered from his enemies.
- When we come before God, bow down before Him and truly pray, we will be able to receive from God.
- We must come to God with a humble and faithful heart.
 - We must not have doubt, fear, or complaint when we come before God.
- Sometimes, we grieve or have other negative emotions, however, we must not let it overcome us.
 - Instead, we should cry out and cast our worries and burdens before God.
- Jesus is our salvation and in His name is how we should pray.
 - When we confess our sins and fully repent before God, the Holy Spirit will help us in our weakness.
- We do not have to fear repenting and confessing sins before God.
- If we want God's miraculous healing, we must have faith.
- David's life success was in worship and praise until the power of God came down on him.
 - (Psalms 63:3-4) 3 Because your love is better than life, my lips will glorify you. 4 I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands.
- David experienced God's deliverance in all aspects of his life.
 - David praised God in all situations.
 - He saw the power and glory of God.

- When the power of anointing of God comes upon us, we will be set free and healed.
- When we go home from church, we must continue to pray and be filled with the Holy Spirit.
 - We must pray at least three times a day.
- (Psalms 63:5) I will be fully satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you.
 - We must have the same joy as David and give thanks for all that God gives us.
- When we have the Holy Spirit in us, our lives and our health will be changed.

Romans 8:26 | Psalms 8:2 | Mark 16:17-18 | Job 26:1-4 | Job 26:13 | John 18:4-6

- (Romans 8:26) 26 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans.
 - The Holy Spirit helps us to pray in our weakness.
 - How do we pray away our worry, doubt, and anxiety?
 - The Holy Spirit will intercede for us.
- If we do not know how to pray or what to pray for, we must pray in the Holy Spirit.
 - The wordless groans from the Holy Spirit is not a groan in defeat our disappointment, but the Holy Spirit helping us pray.
- When we speak in tongues, we speak directly to God.
 - This was described by David.
 - (Psalms 8:2) 2 Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.
- When we speak in tongues, we may feel that it is weird, however, we are speaking directly to God.
 - When we speak in tongues, we may not understand what we are saying, but we are uttering mysteries and the wonders of God by our Spirit.
- (Mark 16:17-18) 17 And these signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues; 18 they will pick up snakes with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all; they will place their hands on sick people, and they will get well."
- Here it explains how we will have signs and miracles.
 - We must drive out demons in Jesus' name and speak in new tongues.
- If we want better health and change in our business, we must speak in tongue.
- How did God turn Job's adversity around?
 - (Job 26:1-4) Then Job replied: 2 "How you have helped the powerless! How you have saved the arm that is feeble! 3 What advice you have offered to one without wisdom! And what great insight you have displayed! 4 Who has helped you utter these words? And whose spirit spoke from your mouth?
 - (Job 26:13) 13 By his breath the skies became fair; his hand pierced the gliding serpent.
 - The Holy Spirit was upon Job and spoke through Job and miracles came upon Job.
- When we believe, when we speak in tongues and praise God, our enemies will flee and we will receive healing.
- We come to church to worship to receive and be filled with the Holy Spirit.
 - When we are filled, our tongues will be able to speak the language of praise.
- (John 18:4-6) 4 Jesus, knowing all that was going to happen to him, went out and asked them, "Who is it you want?" 5 "Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "I am he," Jesus said. (And Judas the traitor was standing there with them.) 6 When Jesus said, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground.

- We come to church to worship and let all our doubt and sin and let them fall before God.
- Jesus will lead us and make our way straight.
- When we fall before Jesus, our doubts and fears completely fall and miracles come upon us.

This Is Our Worship

Lyrics: Tiffany Cheng | Sandy Yu

Music: Sandy Yu

I hear the sound, never ending praise
This is the sound that invites Your Kingdom come
Hands lifted high, faith begins to rise
Healing and grace will come down as we praise

Chorus

Oh this is our worship bringing glory to Your name
In the highs and lows, give You all our praise
as we see Your mighty works
Oh, this is our worship, Lord, we offer all to You
Let this glorious praise be Your dwelling place as we lift Your name on high

Bridge

When we worship You, mountains will move
Every chain will break away
When we worship You and turn to You our hearts will join as one
When we worship You in victory
All the enemies will fall
Every generation joins as one to bring You sounds of praise
