Summary:

Psalms 22:3 | Revelations 3:7-8

- We must come together at church to lift up our hands to worship and praise together.
 - Not just at church, but even at home and at work or wherever we are, we must practice praising God.
 - We must praise especially when we are in a bad mood or encounter issues.
 - (Psalms 22:3) Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the one Israel praises.
- When we praise and worship daily without fail, we will see that every aspect of our lives will change.
- The more we pray and praise, the more anointing and power we will have.
 - The more anointing that we have, the more successful we will be.
- (Revelations 3:7-8) 7 “To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: These are the words of him who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open. 8 I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.
 - Revelations has records of 7 churches, but the church in Philadelphia greatly pleased God.
 - This church has the key of David which is praise.
- David was the smallest and youngest in his family, so he was tasked with shepherding.

- David would praise and worship every day in the wilderness as he was shepherding, and God was greatly pleased.
- This praise became the key of David which holds great authority.
- Whenever David encountered troubles, he would lift his hands up and call out to God, praising Him.
- Regardless of what is going on, whether good or bad, we must praise and worship.
 - We must worship until we receive the Spirit, and God's authority will change everything to be in our favor.
- We must also learn to pray for those around us so that they too may receive God in their lives.
- Before doing anything, David inquired of the Lord.
 - We must also inquire of God before doing anything and pray until we receive our instruction from Him.
 - God's direction and method for us may be different every time, so we must make sure to inquire of Him before doing anything.
- Especially when our environment seems to be in a dire state, we must continue to pray and praise.
 - God loves when we are victorious, and when we seek Him, He will help us.
- When God gives us our direction and method, even if it is something that we don't want to do, we must follow exactly.

Psalms 139:16-17 | Psalms 119:164

- We need God to bless us and open the door for us before we do anything.
 - We must continue to pray and praise until we receive faith and strength from God.
- (Psalms 139:16-17) 16 Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be. 17 How precious to me are your thoughts, God! How vast is the sum of them!
 - In these ever-changing end times, we must follow the direction that God has prepared for us.
 - God will definitely open the door for us in our business, family, marriage, and every aspect of our life.
- We must not proceed by ourselves but wait until we receive the guidance and wisdom of God.
- (Psalms 119:164) Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous laws.
 - Every day, we must put God's word in our heart.
- God has already sent Jesus as the word become flesh to us.
 - We must have complete faith that by Jesus being crucified on the cross, we have received complete healing and perfect peace.

Acts 16:16-40

- Paul and Silas set an example for us that no matter what happens, they continue to praise and worship joyfully.
 - In all things, they praised and called out to God.
- Paul and Silas were of high standing and could have used his own way to get out of prison, but he had faith and relied on the almighty hand of God instead.
- Paul and Silas are a testimony for us that without doubt, complaints, or worries, we can face all things with praise and worship.
 - Through their praise and prayer, they were able to completely turn around their situation.
 - At the height of their praise, the power and authority of God came and shook even the foundation of the prison, breaking all the chains and opening all the doors.
 - We must believe in miracles and continuously praise and offer to God.

- Regardless of our circumstances, we must rely on God and offer up the sacrifice of praise.
 - Through praise, our mouths will bear the fruit of miracles and blessings.
- We must praise and worship until the Spirit of the Lord descends upon us and completely turns our life around.
 - Only through praising God will we be able to receive strength and anointing.

By faith, I will follow You 'til the end.
Take my unbelief and put my trust in You.
