Whoever Has Will Be Given More (2)

Main Bible Verse:

(John 14:21) Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Prayers for the Kingdom Commission:

- Monthly Church Fasting and Prayer will be held every last Saturday after Morning Prayer. We encourage brothers and sisters to attend the Morning Prayer at 8:30 and join us for the Fasting and Prayer afterwards.
  Date of Fasting and Prayer in November: 11/28.

Summary:

John 14:21 | 1 Corinthians 2:9 | John 1:3 | Psalm 103:16-20 | Hebrews 1:7

- We must continually come to church with a heart seeking the Lord.
  - God will surely turn our life around as long as we seek His face.
  - God wants to give us His new and living way.
- How can we see God's true and everlasting love for us?
- (John 14:21) Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."
  - In everything that we do, we must have the commands of God.
  - As long as we follow the commands that God gives us, we will be blessed beyond our understanding.
  - (1 Corinthians 2:9) However, as it is written: "What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived"— the things God has prepared for those who love him—
  - (John 1:3) Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.
- We mustn't do things by our own thoughts and feelings but only by the word that God gives us.
- No matter what people say or what happens around us, we must not allow anything to hinder us from following God's commands.
  - As long as we have God's commands and are willing to step forth with faith, He will bestow upon us heavenly authority.

    - We will receive great anointing, and the angels will work in our favor.
- (Psalm 103:16-20) 16 the wind blows over it and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more. 17 But from everlasting to everlasting the Lord's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children— 18 with those who keep his covenant and remember to obey his precepts. 19 The Lord has established his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules over all. 20 Praise the Lord, you his angels, you mighty ones who do his bidding, who obey his word.
    - God's authority rules over all things, and He will open a new and living way for those who love Him.
    - God will send His angels to help us.
    - (Hebrews 1:7) In speaking of the angels he says, "He makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire."
- When we truly repent and return before God, He will help us.
    - God deeply cares for us, even having numbered the hairs on our head.
    - As long as we follow God's commands, He will grant us grace upon grace and blessing upon blessing.
- In all that we do, we mustn't forget what God has done for us and give glory to Him.
    - We must share this great mercy of God with others and bring more people to church.

2 Chronicles 20:3, 14-26 | 1 Kings 17:7-24

- Jehoshaphat, when faced with a vast army, came before God to inquire of Him wholeheartedly.
    - (2 Chronicles 20:3) Alarmed, Jehoshaphat resolved to inquire of the Lord, and he proclaimed a fast for all Judah.
    - Whenever we encounter troubles, we do not need to worry but just kneel down and pray to ask God what we need to do.
    - We must not allow ourselves to have any worry or doubts in our hearts.
    - When Jehoshaphat took his people to fast and pray, God spoke to him through a prophet.
    - (2 Chronicles 20:14-15) 14 Then the Spirit of the Lord came on Jahaziel son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite and descendant of Asaph, as he stood in the assembly. 15 He said: "Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem! This is what the Lord says to you: 'Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast army. For the battle is not yours, but God's.
- The ability and wisdom of man is greatly limited, but God's authority rules over all.
- We must follow the commands that God has given us, no matter how challenging, and because of our faith and obedience, we receive the authority to help those around us.
    - Jehoshaphat was commanded not to fight the battle but stand firm and worship.
    - When Jehoshaphat obeyed the command that God had given him, he was delivered from the hands of his enemies.
- In the face of troubles, we only need to open our mouth and lift up our hands to praise and worship.
    - When we are praising God, we fill our hearts with joy and prevent our mouths from speaking bitter words.
- Not only did Jehoshaphat and the people of Judah have victory over their enemies, it took them 3 full days to collect the plunder.

- Having heard that God's presence is with the kingdom of Judah, other nations feared them and dared not to attack them or bother them.
- When we first receive God's word, we may not understand, but we must remember that God's love endures forever and obey.
    - (1 Kings 17:13-14) 13 Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small loaf of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son. 14 For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the Lord sends rain on the land.'"
- As long as we are willing to deny ourselves to follow the commands that God gives us, He will give us our new and living way.
- It is not that we will not encounter troubles when we follow the commands that God gives us but that His presence will be with us always to help us overcome all things.

My Heart Belongs to You

Music & Lyrics:
Robert & Lea Sutanto

Verse

I come before You Lord
With praise before Your throne, Jesus
My heart and soul belongs
In Your unending love

Chorus

Lord, I come to You, I give You all my heart
Everything I have, I offer up to You
There's no greater wealth You desire more
Than my heart for You, I offer up to You

Only you deserve my sacrifice to You
So let this be my cry, my prayer to You, Lord
That I will live my life, a vessel for Your name
And glorify You Lord
